Placido Polanco signs with Marlins

Former All-Star third baseman Placido Polanco on Thursday signed a one-year contract with the Miami Marlins worth $2.75 million. Polanco can earn an additional $125,000 if he appears in 100 games, and another $125,000 if he appears in 120 games.

The Marlins have been looking for an everyday third baseman since trading Hanley Ramirez to the Dodgers in July. According to teams that have spoken with them, the Marlins unsuccessfully explored trades for three young third basemen -- Mike Olt of the Rangers, Nick Castellanos of the Tigers and Jedd Gyorko of the Padres. They also had interest in free agents Brandon Inge and Miguel Tejada.

The deal solidifies the Marlins' lineup following a payroll purge. Other projected starters include Logan Morrison at first, Donovan Solano at second, Adeiny Hechavarria at shortstop, Jeff Brantly at catcher, Giancarlo Stanton in right, Justin Ruggiano in center and Juan Pierrein left. Hanley Ramirez played 90 games at third this year for Miami before being traded in July. That was part of the salary purge by the Marlins, who pared $146.5 million in future payroll when they swung a trade last month that sent former NL batting champion Jose Reyes, former NL ERA leader Josh Johnson and left-hander Mark Buehrle to Toronto.

The Marlins have a projected 2013 payroll of about $45.75 million. Their payroll on opening day this year was $112 million, not including money received in the Carlos Zambrano trade, but the team finished last in the NL East and drew smaller crowds than expected in its new ballpark.

Polanco, 37, missed 72 games last season with the Philadelphia Phillies because of back, knee, ankle and wrist injuries. He hit .294 in the first two months, but batted just .198, with five extra-base hits, in 130 plate appearances after June 4. He started only two games after July 22 because of lower-back inflammation.

In 2011, however, Polanco started at third base for the National League in the All-Star Game and won a Gold Glove. He has a .299 lifetime batting average and is a Gold Glove winner at both second and third base.

A photograph of baseball player A.J. Pierzynski in a white Texas Rangers pinstriped uniform, running on a dirt field. His jersey number 12 and name "PIERZYNSKI" are visible on the back. The title "A.J. Pierzynski, Texas agree" is overlaid in large white text with a black drop shadow.

A.J. Pierzynski, Texas agree

Free-agent catcher A.J. Pierzynski has agreed to terms with the Texas Rangers on a one-year deal, pending a physical, sources confirmed. The physical is expected to occur on Friday.

Pierzynski, who turns 36 on Dec. 30, batted .278 with 27 homers (a career high) and 77 RBIs (tied a career-high in 2004) this past season for the Chicago White Sox. He played in 135 games, starting 121 at catcher.

The veteran would give the Rangers a left-handed power bat in a lineup that was right-handed heavy even before Josh Hamilton signed his five-year deal with the Los Angeles Angels last weekend.

Pierzynski could catch and play some designated hitter in Texas with catcher Geovany Soto also under contract with the team.

Pierzynski, who made $6 million in 2012 as part of a two-year, $8 million contract, would step into the spot vacated by Mike Napoli, who agreed to terms on a three-year deal with Boston at the winter meetings. That deal has not been finalized.

Napoli hit 24 homers and had 56 RBIs in 108 games for Texas in 2012, but hit just .227.

In 133 career at-bats at Rangers Ballpark in Arlington, Pierzynski has hit .271 with three homers and 16 RBIs. He has nine doubles, one triple, 19 strikeouts and six walks. He's been hit by a pitch seven times as well.

It was just last July when Pierzynski was left off the AL All-Star team by Rangers manager Ron Washington, who said he just didn't have room to put him on the squad. Washington has repeatedly praised Pierzynski throughout the years.

"I feel bad for Pierzynski," Washington said shortly after the All-Star team was announced. "The guy's having an outstanding year. He's been working with a very good pitching staff over there with those Chicago White Sox for many years. I consider him a winning player because he beats you any kind of way he can. He beats you mentally. He beats you physically. So I feel really bad for Pierzynski."

Pierzynski was not pleased with Washington's decision.

"If (Washington) felt that bad, he would have put me on the team," Pierzynski said at the time. "He had an opportunity to and he didn't do it. Obviously, he can feel as bad as he wants, but he didn't feel that bad."

Timberwolves end Thunder's 12-game winning streak

MINNEAPOLIS -- Kevin Durant and the Oklahoma City Thunder have been blowing the doors off the rest of the Western Conference in these first two months, playing with the swagger born of their run to the NBA Finals last season.

J.J. Barea and the Minnesota Timberwolves tried to send a message on Thursday night that a second straight trip isn't going to come easy.

Playing with the tenacity that made him so important to the Mavericks' run to the title two years ago, Barea scored 14 of his 18 points in the fourth quarter to help the Timberwolves snap Oklahoma City's 12-game winning streak with a 99-93 victory over the Thunder.

Kevin Love had 28 points, 11 rebounds and seven assists and Nikola Pekovic had 24 points and 10 rebounds for Minnesota. But it was Barea who was the key, scoring 12 straight at one point for the Wolves to hold off the team with the best record in the league.

"It's important," coach Rick Adelman said of beating the best in the West. "But I would like to see us get to a point where this is not a big deal. It's a big game against the best team, but this is something we can do."

Kevin Durant had 33 points, seven rebounds and six assists and Russell Westbrook had 30 points, 11 rebounds and nine assists for the Thunder, who had not lost a game since Nov. 23 at Boston.

"It's not the end of the world. A lot of people said the world is going to end today, tomorrow, but it's not the end of the world," Durant quipped. "We lost to a good team (Thursday).

They came out and played extremely hard and they beat us. We're 21-5 and we've just got to go back and work."

That it was Barea, and not the Olympian Love or the sensation Ricky Rubio who was chiefly responsible was the biggest surprise of all.

Barea didn't join the Timberwolves until training camp had already started last season, then languished through the first injury plagued year of his career. Finally healthy, he's getting back to the super pest that helped the Dallas Mavericks to the title two years ago.

With the Thunder charging early in the fourth quarter, the smallest guy on the court played the biggest.

After Durant's two free throws cut Minnesota's lead to 80-77, Barea hit two 3s and scored on a putback under the rim amid the tall trees, an 8-0 run by himself that gave the Wolves a little breathing room. His long 3 with 5:26 to play made it 92-81, and the Wolves held on.

"I love it," Barea said. "We just needed a little bit more tonight, a little energy and I'm glad I was able to provide that for us tonight."

Barea was also a nuisance on defense, drawing an offensive foul on Durant with 2:24 to play. The normally super-cool Durant uncharacteristically lost his composure, picking up a technical foul for arguing the call as well.

"Seems like him and Kevin Love don't miss against us," Durant said of Barea, who tormented them in the Western Conference finals in 2011 and had a triple-double in a double-overtime loss to the Thunder last season. "Seems like every team has that guy and I think those are the guys against us. Next time we've just got to do a better job."

Serge Ibaka had 14 points and nine rebounds, but Westbrook missed 19 shots and turned the ball over eight times in an off night.

Alexey Shved had 12 points, 12 assists and seven rebounds for the Wolves, who are trying to claw their way back to respectability after years at the bottom of the Western Conference.

With a nucleus of Love, Rubio and Pekovic, there is optimism here for the first time in a long time.

The Thunder stormed into Target Center riding the longest winning streak since the team moved to Oklahoma City, bullying opponents by an average of 14.2 points per game as they warm up for a run at a second straight finals appearance.

Rubio was playing his third game since being activated from a torn ACL in his left knee that had kept him out since March 9. He had a scintillating debut last Saturday, throwing no-look passes between his legs and looking as if he'd never left. But it's been slower going in the ensuing two games. He was a non-factor in a loss in Orlando on Monday and had trouble getting going again against the Thunder.

His handle wasn't nearly as sticky as usual and he was thwarted every time he tried to penetrate, then could be seen wincing in pain after an awkward landing on a shot in the second quarter. Adelman immediately pulled him, but Rubio was able to return in the second half.

"We battled. We fought. I'm proud of our guys," Thunder coach Scott Brooks said. "We had a great streak, a great month going. But we lost to a very good team. We knew sooner or later they were going to get hot. They got hot tonight."

Personanan den overtolligheidspoel por ta candidato pa bira Bijzondere Opsporingsambtenaar

Durante di tratamento di e ley di cacho nobo den Parlamento, fraccion di AVP a entrega un mocion cu a wordo accepta cu 12 voto na favor y 4 contra. Fraccion di MEP cu a wordo representa pa tres miembro hunto cu Sr. Andin Bikker di PDR a vota contra di e mocion. E dictum di e mocion ta urgi Gobierno pa haci lo siguiente puntonan: Haci un estudio riba introduccion di un 'heffing' pa yuda cubri e gastonan involvi pa enforsa e Hondenverordening nobo. Introduci un programa pa vacuna tur bestia di cas. Introduci un programa pa sterilisa cacho y pushi. Sondea e posibilidad pa laga e ambtenaarnan cu ta den 'overtolligheidspoel' tuma e curso di Bijzondere Opsporingsambtenaar pa asina nan por eherce e funcion aki enforsando diferente ley. Laga opsporingsambtenaarnan traha hunto cu polis di bario y departamento di

Gele Koorts en Muskietenbestrijding (GKMB) pa por enforsa e ley nobo di Hondenverordening. E 'heffing' por wordo haci na diferente manera. Por ehempel Gobierno por cobra doñonan di cacho un Hondenbelasting of por pone un accijns riba cuminda di cacho. "Nos ta sigur cu personanan cu ta stima bestia no tin ningun obhecion na un heffing pasobra e entrada ta wordo utiliza na e bienestar di e cacho", Rasmijn ta comenta. Punto dos y tres siguramente ta necesario pasobra bestianan di cas mester wordo vacuna y seguramente sterilisa pa preveni cu nan cria no wordo laga riba caya encaso cu un cacho wordo gedek sin cu e doño a planea esey. Si Gobierno logra pa cierto ambtenaarnan cu ta den overtolligheidspoel por bira Opsporingsambtenaar pa asina yuda enforsa no solamente e ley di cacho pero tambe pa controla y sancciona personanan cu ta sushando nos pais y ta dañá nos naturalesa. "E plan aki ta habri un otro oportunidad pa e ambtenaar cu ta den e poel, e ta na beneficio di Gobierno y e ta na beneficio di e pueblo cu ta pidi pa tur ley wordo enforsa riba nos pais", Donny ta bisa. E ultimo punto unda cu ta urgi Gobierno pa laga opsporingsambtenaar, polis y departamento di GKMB traha hunto ta hopi importante. Ambtenaarnan di GKMB ta haci inspeccion riba cria di sangura na tur cas na Aruba. Nan por detecta mes ora si tin un cacho na e cas cu no ta wordo cuida manera debe ser y nan por informa esaki na e Opsporingsambtenaar. Si encaso un situacion ta mas complicada y mester di Polis pa pone orden, nan por yama nan tambe por ultimo. "Ta importante pa nos tin suficiente recurso financiero y humano pa enforsa e ley nobo di cacho. Un belasting cu ta al caso cu un bon grupo di Opsporingsambtenaar sigur lo yuda den esey", Rasmijn ta reitira.
